If the taxpayer who is the subject of this request filed a joint return for the year involved, the net tax from that joint return will be disclosed, regardless of the fact that you may have identified only one spouse.

"No Record" means there is no record of the return(s) being filed using the name and address you provided.

As required by statute, I am writing to the above taxpayers advising them that the information has been disclosed to you and the reason you have given for the request.

Attached is your receipt of payment for the required fee.

Sincerely,

Pat O'Connor Wahl, Chief
Central Income Tax Audit Section
